OBITUARY.

Mrs. Jessie Holt, wife of Fremont A.
Holt, died at her home in New London.
Mrs. Holt had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for two years.

OBITUARY.
Miss Jessie L. Selmer of Groton. Surviving her are her husband and two sisters, Mrs. Edward Chapman of Indianapolis and Mrs. Harrie E. Daniels of Montville.
Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 at St. James' Episcopal church in New London. Rev.
Philip M. Kerdtz officiated.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. Jennie L. Woodin.
The Romance of the English Bible was the subject of the address delivered by State Secretary Wallace I.
Woodin of Hartford. Mr. Woodin spoke of the teacher training work and also touched upon the history of the Bible. Pupils learn many passages of Scripture and know much Scripture, but not much about the Bible. Not many know about church history.
Teachers have been busy studying the Bible, but not much about the Bible.
Miss Ellen Colt, County Teacher Training superintendent, who was to have been one of the afternoon speakers, but who was unable to remain, made her address in the morning. She spoke on Teacher Training. Miss Colt told of the beginning of the teacher training class in 1914 at a conference in New York. Teacher training classes are very valuable.
Why is it, she asked, that teachers do not hold boys? Perhaps it is because of lack of knowledge of the boys. Teacher training is a remedy and help for teachers. It is said that young people will not go to a teacher training class. Yet, says Miss Colt, they will go and even ask to teach.
Another excuse is no one to teach the class. This is the case that there is no one willing to assume the leadership. If not willing to call yourself a teacher, why not call yourself a leader. The cry of the superintendents is where are we to get teachers?

Department Conferences.
At 11.30 o'clock the departmental conferences were held as follows: Elementary, Mrs. Chapin; secondary, Mrs.
Stevens; adult, Mrs. Wilson; teacher training, Mrs. Woodin.

At noon luncheon was provided at the church at a nominal charge. The luncheon was served by Mrs. E. H. Hill, Mrs. George A. Keppeler, Mrs. Ellen Marvin, and they were assisted by Mrs.
M. Young, Mrs. H. D. Ralston, Mrs.
John Irish, Mrs. Nellie Bailey, Mrs. Fred S. Young, Mrs. H. D. Ralston, Miss Mattie Harris, Mrs. John Buttison, Mrs. Nellie Bailey, Mrs.
George Fillmore, Mrs. Sumner V.
Armstrong and Mrs. Minnie Jenkins.

REV. U. O. BELLEROSE.
The afternoon session was called to order at 2 o'clock and the address service was led by Rev. Joel B. Slocum, D. D., pastor of the Central Baptist church.

Wallace I. Woodin of Hartford, general secretary of the Connecticut Sunday School association, was the first speaker of the afternoon, and he gave a general outline of the coming state Sunday school convention to be held at Stamford next month. In closing, he urged those present to see that their

CATARH LEADS TO CONSUMPTION
Catarrh is as much a blood disease as scrofula or rheumatism. It may be relieved, but it cannot be removed by simply local treatment.
It breaks down the general health, weakens the lung tissues, and leads to consumption.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is so successful in the treatment of catarrh that it is known as the best remedy for this disease. It purifies the blood. Ask your druggist for it.

Children in Rural Districts.
Reaching Children in Rural Districts was the subject of the address delivered by Rev. H. J. Wyckoff, president of the County Sunday School association, at the annual convention of the County Sunday School association, which was held at the Town Hall, Tuesday evening. The convention was the largest ever held in the county.
The reports of the various officers showed the past year to have been very successful. President Henry D.
Johnson's report was of an optimistic trend. He reported that the county has gained points in 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 11, 12, 13 and 14, and that the county has forth to try and make up the remaining points. If the county gains another point, before the convention in Stamford, the county will present a 10-point banner.

Rev. Herbert J. Wyckoff, pastor of the Second Congregational church, was elected president of the New London County Sunday School association, succeeding Henry D. Johnson of this city, at the sixth annual convention of the organization, held Tuesday at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Uni-held with luncheon during the intermission. The morning session was called to order at 10 o'clock by President Henry D. Johnson. Rev. Joseph F. Cobb, pastor of the church, led the devotional services.

Parents and Teachers.
Mrs. Lucy Stock Chapin of Hartford was the first speaker and her topic was Cooperation Between Parents and Teachers. Miss Chapin said that teachers have perhaps been unconsciously expecting the parents to leave the instruction of the child to them when the parent, teacher and pupil should be partners. Ignorance, thought-lessness and indifference are the three reasons why there is lack of cooperation. There is spiritual development in Sunday school, whereas in the home more emphasis is laid upon physical development. Mental development is left to the day school.
The parent and teacher must work together to insure the true aim of the Sunday school.
